Croatia's PM welcomes EU decision on BiH candidate status, BiH coalition agreement – HINA

 December 16, 2022

Croatian Prime Minister Andrej Plenkovic on Friday welcomed the EU's granting of candidate status to BiH and the agreement by political parties in BiH to form the next Council of Ministers.

He said the agreement of the political parties "shows that the situation after this election is substantially different than four years ago. Such functionality and reform ambitions will enable Bosnia and Herzegovina to make faster progress towards the European Union, and Croatia will continue to support it in that regard."
